Preventing Cyberbullying

Top Ten Tips for Teens

There are a number of steps teens can take to prevent cyberbullying. Here are a few examples:

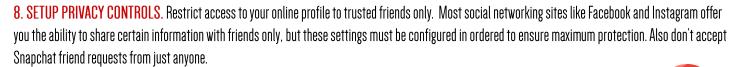

- I. EDUCATE YOURSELF. To prevent cyberbullying from occurring you must understand exactly what it is. Research what constitutes cyberbullying, as well as how and where it is most likely to occur. Talk to your friends about what they are seeing and experiencing.
- 2. PROTECT YOUR PASSWORD. Safeguard your password and other private information from prying eyes. Never leave passwords or other identifying information where others can see it. Also, never give out this information to anyone, even your best friend. If others know it, take the time to change it now!

- 5. LOG OUT OF ONLINE ACCOUNTS. Don't save passwords in form fields within websites or your web browser for convenience, and don't stay logged in when you walk away from the computer or cell phone. Don't give anyone even the slightest chance to pose as you online through your device. If you forget to log out of Twitter when using the computer at the library, the next person who uses that computer could get into your account and cause significant problems for you.
- 6. PAUSE BEFORE YOU POST. Do not post anything that may compromise your reputation. People will judge you based on how you appear to them online. They will also give or deny you opportunities (jobs, scholarships, internships) based on this.
- 7. RAISE AWARENESS. Start a movement, create a club, build a campaign, or host an event to bring awareness to cyberbullying. While you may understand what it is, it's not until others are aware of it too that we can truly prevent it from occurring.

- 9. "GOOGLE" YOURSELF. Regularly search your name in every major search engine (e.g., Google, Bing, Yahoo). If any personal information or content comes up which may be used by someone to target you, take action to have it removed before it becomes a problem.
- IO. DON'T CYBERBULLY OTHERS. Treat others how you would want to be treated. By being a jerk to others online, you become part of the problem. You're better than that—do not stoop to that level. Instead, aim higher and be an example to others. It matters a ton now and for your future.
